

Knowledge of the Holy Chapter 4: The Holy Trinity

Secularism, materialism, and the intrusive presence of things have put out the light in our souls and turned us into a generation of zombies. We cover our deep ignorance with words, but we are ashamed to wonder, we are afraid to whisper "mystery." (page 18)

What do you think of Tozer's words here? How have you found our culture to "put out the light in our souls and turn us into a generation of zombies." How "okay" are you with mystery?

What God declares the believing heart confesses without the need of further proof. Indeed, to seek proof is to admit doubt, and to obtain proof is to render faith superfluous. Everyone who possesses the gift of faith will recognize the wisdom of those daring words of one of the early Church fathers: "I believe that Christ died for me because it is incredible; I believe that he rose from the dead because it is impossible." (pages 19)

Read John 20:24-31. How has God stretched your faith in Him? What areas in your life tend toward doubt?

A popular belief among Christians divide the work of God between the three Persons, giving a specific part to each, as, for instance, creation to the Father, redemption to the Son, and regeneration to the Holy Spirit. This is partly true but not wholly so, for God cannot so divide Himself that one Person works while another is inactive. In the Scriptures the three Persons are shown to act in harmonious unity in all the mighty works that are wrought throughout the universe. (page 23)

When you think of God is it as Father, Son or Holy Spirit? Which person in the God head do you relate to the easiest/least?
